

Richard T. Gorton

Richard Gorton is a 43-year resident of Lower Macungie Township, and has been a Board Member of the LMTHS for 3 years. He and his wife, Becky, live in an 18th century stone bank home on Mill Creek Road in which they raised two (now adult) children who both graduated from Emmaus High School.

Rich was an elementary school principal in the East Penn School District prior to retiring in 2004. He was also involved in school accreditation work in the United States and abroad, served on the Board of the Lehigh Valley Academy Regional Charter School, and did school leadership training for the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Rich enjoys teaching children's Sunday School at First Presbyterian Church of Bethlehem, where he also serves as a Deacon. Rich's hobbies include bee keeping, gardening, skiing, travel and constantly improving and maintaining their historic home.
