

Bob McCall has lived in the Lehigh Valley for over 35 years and is a retired software developer. He enjoys using his computer and handyman skills to help others and currently volunteers with a number of local organizations including the D&L/National Canal Museum, Feed the Children Teacher's Store and LV Reads. Hobbies include reading, hiking, bicycling and kayaking.