

Michael Henry is an Emmaus native who has now lived in Lower Macungie Township for about 40 years. He retired in 2020 after 42 years as an attorney, 41 years of which were with the Allentown law firm Gross McGinley, LLP. His concentrations include the legal issues of nonprofits. He is active in his church at Emmaus Moravian Church and on the Board of Wildlands Conservancy. He has always had an interest in local history and after retirement freed up some time, he joined the Boards of several local historic organizations. He and his wife Meda live in Wescosville and also enjoy as much time as possible at their cottage in the Poconos. They are the parents of 2 sons who live locally, Fogelsville and Breinigsville, and are the grandparents of 2 very active young boys.
