

Sarajane Williams, M.A., licensed psychologist, is a professional harpist, harp teacher, composer, filmmaker, author, editor of The Harp Therapy Journal and founding director of the Vibroacoustic Harp Therapy Training Course®. She has over 40 years of experience in various roles in the healing arts including: nurse, cardiopulmonary technologist, director of LVHN's cardiac catheterization laboratory and biofeedback therapist in a chronic pain center. She uses her harp in her psychology practice, located at Musiatry in Macungie, to provide vibroacoustic harp therapy for clients who suffer from chronic pain, stress, anxiety and depression. She and her husband, classical guitarist Ted Williams, often perform together as The Williams Duo. They have been residents of Lower Macungie Township since 1985. Sarajane has served as president of the LMTHS board member since 2012. She enjoys researching and writing about local history for LMTHS's videos, newsletter articles and for their publications such as The Ghosts of Macungie and surrounding communities and the Tour Around the Township book series.
